

Reuse and integrated urban planning
Studies, rehabilitation, urban renewal

The future of the Saint-Paul and Saint-Joseph prisons of Lyon

Venue: Ecole Nationale du Trésor (amphitheatre)
21 montée de la Butte, 69001 Lyon, France

Thursday June 25th

9H 00

Registration

9H30

Introductions by the 3 inviting parties

- Paul Delorme, president of the CAUE du Rhône (Counsel for architecture, planning and environment of the Rhône)
- Jean Favier, president of the National Commission for UNESCO
- Michèle Prats, vice-presidente of ICOMOS France

10H00

Presentation of the workshop

Hubert Leclercq, president of the Conseil de surveillance de la Financière de Courcelles

10H20

The Saint-Joseph and Saint-Paul prisons of Lyon

Véronique Belle, researcher at the cultural heritage survey department of the Rhône-Alpes Region

10H45

The historical context and main issues

Jean-Michel Leniaud, Ecole Pratiques des Hautes Etudes – Paris

11H15

Integrating projects and conservation: how to transmit the important European heritage?

Andréa Bruno, architect

11h45 Coffee break

12H

New uses for old prisons: the Charles street Jail in Boston (Massachusetts, USA)

Wolfgang Rudorf AIA, architect

12H30

Q & A

13H00

Lunch at the School cafeteria (price per person: 12,50 €, inscription is mandatory)

14H30

The future of the Lyon prisons in an active urban renewal context

Yves Dauge, president of the French national association of French world heritage sites, expert to the World Heritage director

15H

Rehabilitation and urban renewal: which stakeholders and what types of response

Introduction:

Rehabilitation: a contribution to sustainable development

Michèle Prats, vice-president of ICOMOS France

Case studies:

- The rehabilitation of the Fort de Bard (Val d'Aoste)
Alain Montferrand founding president of the Vauban association;
- The rehabilitation of the Coulommiers prison
Béatrice Jullien, architect;
- The rehabilitation of the « 104 », the Paris Municipal Funeral Service
Jacques Pajot, architect

16H

Round table chaired by Patrice Beghain, expert « cities, architecture and heritage »

With the participation of:

- Andrea Bruno, architect
- Béatrice Jullien, architect
- Alain Montferrand founding president of the Vauban association
- Jacques Pajot, architect
- Charles-André Roche, Conseiller du président Redevco Europe
- Wolfgang Rudolf, architect

16H45

Plenary debate and conclusion

By Hubert Leclercq

Documentation on the Saint-Paul and Saint-Joseph prisons :

<http://sdx.rhonealpes.fr>

<http://www.pointsdactu.org>